Welcome to the Online Continuing Education Registration System!

This catalog contains online, self-paced Continuing Education (CE) courses only. In-person events and live webinars are offered through a separate registration catalog.

As we transition from our previous registration platform, Genius, to Learning Stream, some online courses may not yet appear in this catalog. We appreciate your patience during this transition period.

Important Transition Notice: We are retiring the Genius registration system previously used for CE registrations. If you have earned certificates in Genius, please download them by August 17, 2026. Access to the system will end on August 18, 2026, and certificate records will no longer be available.

Access the Genius catalog and download your certificates here:

<https://nmclc.geniussis.com/catalog>

Courses currently available in Genius may still be registered for and completed through August 17, 2026.

Looking for live webinars or in-person CE activities? Visit our separate registration catalog:
